our families to best meet their needs and comfort levels by launching a fourth, virtual site "Horizons at Home". Through this hybrid model, we served 350 students, including 100 students that would not have been able to participate had we solely offered in-person programming. The summer program was supplemented by school year workshops and programming that engaged our current students and alumni through skill-building, career exploration, and support navigating the transition to high school and beyond.

High-quality instruction, hands-on experiential learning, and individualized support from skilled professional teachers are the pillars of our model. To ensure our approach is student-centered, holistic, and inclusive, Horizons Greater Washington's programming adheres to the Weikart Center's pyramid of program quality. The pyramid's steps - creating safe, supportive, interactive, and engaging learning environments - inform all instructional, programmatic, and site-specific decisions and goals. In alignment with the pyramid of program quality, Horizons fosters joyful and engaging environments full of academic, artistic, and athletic activities that inspire young minds.
